

Public Engagement and Involvement Forum

Tuesday 11 May 10:00 – 12:00

09:30 - Chat opens

10:00-10:05 - Welcome and introductions from the chair, Reshma Raycoba, Head of Public Involvement, NHS Research Governance and Digital (Acting), Welsh Government

10:05-10:10 - Setting the scene, Kieran Walshe, Director Health and Care Research Wales

10:10-10:20 - What you told us - Discover Your Role prioritisation survey, Reshma Raycoba

10:20-10:35 - Developing a Public Engagement Strategy, Felicity Waters, Head of Communications, Engagement and Involvement, Health and Care Research Wales

10:35-10:50 - Tackling administrative barriers, Reshma Raycoba

10:50-10:55 - UK Standards for Public Involvement – New training package for Wales, Barbara Moore, Senior Public Involvement Manager, Health and Care Research Wales

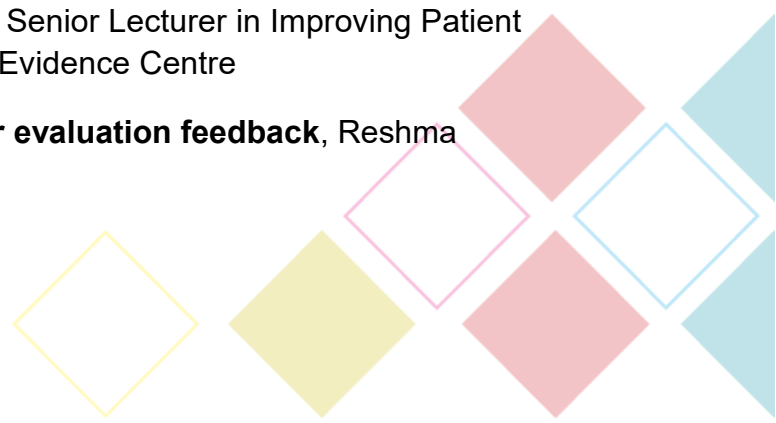

10:55-11:00 - Break

11:00-11:20 - How the public are involved in prioritising health and social care research, Emma Small, Senior Prioritisation and Dissemination Manager; Welsh Government and Chris Kemp-Philip, Public Contributor

11:20-11:30 - Young people are at the centre of DECIPHer activities, Peter Gee, Senior Public Involvement Officer, DECIPHer

11:30-11:50 - What matters most to you? Setting research priorities for the Wales COVID-19 Evidence Centre, Professor Adrian Edwards, Director, Wales COVID-19 Evidence Centre and Natalie Joseph-Williams, Senior Lecturer in Improving Patient Care, Cardiff University and Wales COVID-19 Evidence Centre

11:50-12:00 - Summary, next steps and your evaluation feedback, Reshma Raycoba

Thursday 13 May 16:30 – 18:30

16:00 - Chat opens

16:30–16:35 - Welcome and introductions from the chair, Reshma Raycoba, Head of Public Involvement, NHS Research Governance and Digital (Acting), Welsh Government

16:35–16:40 - Setting the scene, Kieran Walshe, Director, Health and Care Research Wales

16:40–16:50 - What you told us - Discover Your Role prioritisation survey, Reshma Raycoba

16:50–17:05 - Developing a Public Engagement Strategy, Felicity Waters, Head of Communications, Engagement and Involvement, Health and Care Research Wales

17:05–17:20 - Tackling administrative barriers, Reshma Raycoba

17:20–17:25 - UK Standards for Public Involvement – New training package for Wales, Barbara Moore, Senior Public Involvement Manager, Health and Care Research Wales

17:25–17:30 - Break

17:30–17:50 - INCLUDE - Better healthcare through more inclusive research, Laurie Oliver, Head of Public Engagement, National Institute for Health Research, Clinical Research Network

17:50–18:05 - Opportunities and challenges when engaging communities in Born in Wales, Hope Jones, Lead Researcher, Born in Wales project, Ashra Khanom, Public Contributor and Solmaz Safari, Public Contributor

18:05–18:20 - Talking trials – Engage to Involve, Martina Svobodova, Research Associate/Trial Manager, Sudipta Bandyopadhyay, Teaching Assistant/Talking Trials Co-researcher and Dr Catherine Lamont-Robinson, Artist-educator in the medical humanities

18:20–18:30 - Summary, next steps and your feedback, Reshma Raycoba

