Young People are at the centre of DECIPHer activities

- Strategic development of DECIPHer – Steering Group
- Promoting young peoples participation in public health research
- Public engagement activities
- Training and dissemination activities
- Support & advise on individual research projects;
  - alcohol advertising,
  - drug prevention,
  - sexual health intervention.
- Identifying priorities for research
Activity Name: Diamond Ranking
Activity Type: Interpretation
Interactive tool: Menti.com

Physical Activity/Exercise
Nutrition/Diet
Bullying
Alcohol
Smoking
Drugs
Sexual health
Violence
Mental health/Emotional well-being
ALPHA Public Health Priorities

- Physical Activity/Exercise
- Nutrition/Diet
- Smoking
- Alcohol
- Sexual health
- Drugs
- Violence
- Bullying
- Mental health/Emotional well-being

Least Important 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 Most Important
What do WHO Health Promotion Schools focus on 2014?

- Physical Activity (6%)
- Nutrition (18%)
- Physical Activity & Nutrition (27%)
- Multiple Risk Behaviours (10%)
- Tobacco (8%)
- Bullying (10%)
- Alcohol (3%)
- Violence (3%)
- Sexual Health (3%)
- Mental Health (3%)
- Hand-washing (3%)
- Other (6%)
TRIUMPH Research Priority Setting

Research Priorities for Youth Public Mental Health

- Building relationships that support good mental health and wellbeing
- Whole system approaches to support young people’s mental health
- Social media and mental health
- Supporting young people at times of transition
- Improving links between different services and settings
- Development and training for those who support young people’s mental health
- Staff mental health and wellbeing
- Engaging with families
- Young people’s awareness, access and experience of services
- Out of school and community settings that support mental health and wellbeing
Any Questions?

Peter Gee,
Public Involvement Officer,
DECIPHer,
1-3 Museum Place,
Cardiff,
CF10 3BD
Tel: +44 (0)29 206 87218 or +44 (0)7881514874
Email: geep@Cardiff.ac.uk

Twitter: @ALPHA_DECIPHer